IDENTIFICATION											NAMED TARGET CONCEPTS (LAYER 1)							DIRECT POST-CASCADE REDEFINITIONS OF FOUNDATIONAL VOCABULARY (LAYER 2)									IDENTITY-CENTERING AXIS
Article ID	Journal	Year	Volume	Issue	Author(s)	Author institutional affiliation	Title	Abstract (copied)	Sample stratum (random/citation-weighted/anchor)	Citation count (google scholar at time of coding)	Colorblind racism	Structural racism/systemic racism	Privilege	Microaggressions	Intersectionality	Heteronormativity/cisnormativity	Implicit bias/unsconscious bias	Harm (in the structural-experiential sense rather than the agent-act-victim sense)	Violence (in extended senses: legal violence, structural violence, symbolic violence, epistemic violence, slow violence)	Power (as group-level structural position rather than as exercised agency)	Trauma (in the cultural / collective / structural sense)	Oppression	Domination / dominance (as structural-position term)	Marginalization / subordination	Cisgender, non-binary, gender identity (when treated as separable from sex), assigned gender at birth — gender-framework vocabulary	Disparities, inequalities (when used to frame differential outcomes as automatically problematic rather than as differences requiring analysis)	Group identity as primary analytical organization	Identity categories invoked	Identity Deployment	How identity is presented	Method type	Primary subfield	Observations